MISSISSIPPI BAND OF CHOCTAW INDIANS
OFFIGE OF THE TRIBAL CHIEF

TRIBAL OFFICE BUILDING
ROUTE 7, BOX 21
PHILADELPHIA, MISSISSIPPI 39350
TELEPHONE (601) 656-5251

January 2, 1986

To Nelson Chisolm and Family:

On behalf of the tribal government of the Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians, I would like to express the sympathy of the Choctaw people to Frankie's family on her passing.

Frankie's relation to the tribal government dates back to 1968. As Finance Officer, she set up a centralized financial operation for the tribe, with written Financial Policies and Procedures, and well-trained staff operating a responsive and accurate double-entry accounting system, with full documentary justification for payments. Our finances are considered outstanding in Indian Country; and Frankie was responsible for the development of the first federal indirect costs agreement ever approved for an Indian tribe, indirect costs being those funds which support the operations of a tribal government contracting with the federal government.

In 1975, she and I set up the National Indian Management Service, and in her work there Frankie traveled throughout the country assisting tribes and urban Indian centers set up their accounting systems and establish basic policies and procedures necessary to effective management. She was well respected nationwide and known by many, many people in tribes from coast to coast.

The work that Frankie has done will be long lasting; and she will be remembered by many people in many tribes to whom she lent her assistance, encouragement, and enthusiasm. Again, we express our appreciation for the work that she has done for all of us, and our sympathy that she is now over the long illness that she so unjustly suffered.

Sincerely,

Phillip Martin

Dear Jean,

Thank you for attending to my enrollment as a member of the Jackson County Genealogical Society. I will look forward to the journal around the end of this month. Then I will submit some queries and maybe find some descendants of the Smiths, the Millers, or the Chisolms.

Thank you for asking around about those Chisolms for me and for sending the address of Katie Steen. I will write to her.

I, too, had a letter, similar to the one sent to you by Susan Polizzi in Mobile regarding Scottish/Mississippi relatives and the surname Chislom. Thank you for sending a copy of her letter to me. It had more information than the one I received. I found her letter to be somewhat confusing and it would have presented a better chance for me to help her from any information I might have in connection with my study of Chisolms if she had included a pedigree chart and/or some family group sheets. I am enclosing a copy of my response to her, and I hope you are able to take the time to read it because it contains thoughts about the surname Chisolm which I would express to you. You probably noticed in those copies you sent to me of information from tombstones in Greenwood Cemetery in Pascagoula: In Loving Remembrance or our Mother Mary Chislom.

In regard to the same subject, thank you for the copies of newspaper articles you enclosed in your letter of December 22, 1994, in regard to the death of Malcolm Chisholm. In Regina Hines' November 15, 1989 article Chisholm is the spelling used throughout, while the "Pascagoula Mississippi Chronicle Star" September 10, 1937, article headline mentions Malcolm Chisolm and in the body of the article the spelling Chisholm is consistently used. For my own clarification while reading your enclosufes I made a family group sheet plus I wrote down information I had previously gathered from the Mobile City Directories and I enclose this information for what it is worth. I have wondered if the Pascagoula Library Genealogy Collection has vertical files. If so, maybe you would like to put this in. I may have other information which could be of benefit to researchers in that area.

I am aware that one individual's name can show up with many different spellings in records. However, I do think there is a difference between families whose names are truly spelled Chisolm, Chisholm, Chism, Chisolum, Chislom, etc. I am fortunate enough to have a copy of Jonathan Chisolm's signature as it appears on a petition signed in Mobile in 1837 (I believe) and I will enclose that also.

Until I began my family history research I never realized the extent of the closeness of the connection between Mobile and Pascagoula. I sent for Microfiche No. 6051102 from Salt Lake for use here. These are records about Cemeteries by the Jackson County Genealogical Society.

There are so many names I've studied in connection with Mobile that I see in those Pascagoula area cemetery records: Joyner, Raley, John Hill, Hester, Baudrau, Preston and Nettie Bosarge, Pauline Clark Cassibry and in the Machpelah Cemetery there are two more Chisolms -- babies: Chisolm, Larry Franklin Feb 4, 1954 - Feb 21, 1954 and Chisolm, Raymond Charles 9 Oct 1957 - 10 Oct 1957.

Griffin Cemetery - Moss Point

David Files, a native of South Carolina, Died Dec 31 1854, age 53, is the same person, I believe, whom I see in the Mobile census and the city directory.

* Young Goleman's is a family I have studied while trying to unravel what I perceive to be a connection between the Bosarge family and either my Chisolm family of my Miller family. I was probably trying to figure out if there could be a connection between the Gill family and the Chisolms. I'll send along the family group sheet I came across for this family. I probably have more on them. You could drop this in their vertical file if you have one.

Albert Rasmussen 1875-1938 is a name I had in my notes. I believe his is a name I saw in the census for Scranton living very near to Eliza Smith and later in a Mobile census living at an address which belonged at one time to Eliza's sister. I don't have all my papers organized, so I am talking from memory some of the time. All good researchers know, anyway, that before they use anyone else's research that they must check it out for themselves for accuracy.

Jessie Oliver Lott - Enclosed copy of Oct. 9, 1832 Mobile newspaper article re location of precincts for the Presidential election, which may interest you because it mentions many names with which I am sure you are familiar, not just Jonathan Chisolm and Jessee Lott, but also John Baptiste Ladinair, Travis George, and John Bosarge. I have wondered if that Lott who has just been elected to a Mississippi seat in the House of Representatives is a member of that family. These two persons, Jessie Lott in the cemetery and Jessee Lott of the newspaper article, of course, are not the same people because Jessie Oliver Lott, Sr. died 30 Jan. 1965 at the age of 76, which would make his birthdate about 1889. I am also enclosing a photocopy of a filmed clerk's record of a marriage of a Berry Lott to Margaret McLeod, which was performed by Jonathan Chisolm, J.P.

this letter
I really should close right here. There is more than enough in this one. But I get so interested in the subject. And I do want to comment about your September 9 letter regarding the lady in your community who is a Danish expert and about the Danish colony in Jackson County. The birthplace of Mary Stallings Miller (Chisolm) (according to the majority of records I've seen) is South Carolina. I have found a record of the birth of her daughter, Eliza Ann Miller 19 July 1836, baptised 25 December 1836 at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Key West, Monroe County, Florida. I will enclose three Mobile censuses, two from 1850 and one from Mobile 1860. If these all pertain to my Mary Miller, then she never got very far from the water. I have learned from my studies that in 1836 the population of Key West, Florida had the highest per capita income of any place in the United States. One of the reasons for that was the many shipwrecks which occurred there and the salvage activities of the "wreckers". This was a lucrative albeit dangerous means of making a living. There were groups of people from Mobile involved in that and it could well be your contact may know if some of the men in the Pascagoula area did this as well. I suspect that Hans Christopher Miller was a man of the sea. There were Stallings in Mississippi early on. It is possible they met and married there. I wonder if Pascagoula has any marriage records that go back as far as 1827-28. I also would like to know how to get a death record for Mary Stallings Miller Chisolm in Pascagoula. I'd like to know where to write, the amount of the fee and if personal checks are acceptable or if a money order is required. Please let me know the next time you write.

I am very grateful for your interest and your help. If I can ever help you in any way, please do not hesitate to let me know if there is something I could look up for you. I have access to the L.D.S. library in West Los Angeles and they have many records.

Sincerely,

Elaine

S.A.S.E.

P.S. Eliza and her family always seem to have been Episcopalian. And one would think Captain James Smith, being a native of Scotland, would probably have been Presbyterian. This couple had only one child, James O. Smith, born April 1876 (source 1900 census). Do you know if there was an Episcopal Church and/or a Presbyterian Church in the area of Scranton 1876-1910? They probably belonged to one or the other, or both between the two of them, and James O. was most likely baptized. Failing that, do you think there is any chance of getting a birth certificate for him? And if so, from whom? I'd give a lot to learn what the O. stands for.

Eliza and James kept a boarding house, according to census records, for possibly thirty years 1880-1910 and operated a Bakery on Delmas Avenue in 1900 and probably had a business license. I wonder if there are records in connection with that?

They owned property as well. Are there indexes for land records and are they available by mail or if not, does the genealogical society have a research team?

Also, there might be a will. Do you know if the probate records are indexed and if they are available by mail?

I feel somewhat chagrined to be plaguing you with all these questions but if I don't ask, you can't answer. And I know you are very knowledgeable in this field of research, are familiar with the area, have an interest in the subject of family history, and more than likely would like information about the families who have lived in the area to add to that already available in the Pascagoula Library Genealogy Collection.

* Upon looking at my family group sheets for the Young Goleman family, I find them confusing and will have to look at the information again before I send a group sheet.

 I can't lay my hands on the 1860 census referred to just at the moment. I am enclosing a data sheet instead, which has all the same information on it.

Another P.S. I now have written proof that my Shepherds were in Wayne County, and since there seems to have been only one Shepherd family there, I think we can safely say that they are mine.

Mrs. Jean Strickland
P. O. Box 5147
Moss Point, Mississippi 31563

Dear Mrs. Strickland,

Thank you for your letter of July 21, 1994, in response to my questions about the Shepherd/Sheppard family of Wayne County Mississippi. And thank you for being so alert and noticing on my pedigree chart the death of Mary Chisolm in Pascagoula in December 1888 and for sending the newspaper obituary to me. Your letter sounds as if you may have heard of Captain James Smith before, or maybe that is wishful thinking on my part.

I know that Captain Smith and his wife Eliza, Mary Chisolm's daughter, lived in the Scranton/Pascagoula area beginning at least by 1876 because the census of 1880 indicates that their son James, who was four years old at the time, was born in Mississippi. They probably lived there until they died but I don't know when they died. I have learned, according to the 1880 census that they ran a boarding house in Scranton, and, according to the 1900 census they ran a bakery in Scranton and in 1910 a boarding house in Pascagoula. I know from the censuses that they had one son, but at times there were other people in their household, some named Chisolm, and some who looked as if they could have been relatives. As hard as I have looked, I still do not know what became of their son--where he went--when he died--and if there are descendants.

A friend from Mobile recently sent me a photocopy of a picture which was in the "Jackson County Mississippi Photographs from the Past" compiled by Thomas C. S. Mixon, which is a picture of the Scranton Volunteer Fire Department No. 1, taken before 1900. The identifying names are penned on the picture. But as often happens when photocopying pictures, the area where James Smith is standing came out so dark that I can't see him at all. But it is interesting to note who his neighbors and associates were and to see the old fire fighting equipment and the uniforms.

I was aware from the censuses that he was a veteran of the military, possibly naval service, but I haven't figured out for sure which side he served, the Union or the Confederacy. His wife, who is related to me, was living in Mobile. It looks as if she, her youngest sister, and Mary Chisolm left Mobile in about 1872. Mary Chisolm was delivering babies there until the summer of 1872. She was working as a midwife at least from 1869 through 1872, having been widowed at some point between 1860 and 1870. I cannot figure out what happened to her husband Jonathan Chisolm. There is no record of his death in Mobile and no record of a will, though he had been in Mobile since before 1828.

Mary Chisolm was in New Orleans in 1874 and the last entry I see for her is in the New Orleans City Directory 1875--Mary Chisholm, widow of Jonathan, midwife. Whether they moved straight from Mobile in 1872 to New Orleans or not, I don't know. They could have spent some time in Mississippi in between 1872 and 1874.

In New Orleans Eliza married James Smith and, as I mentioned earlier, by the time of the 1880 census, she and her husband were in Scranton. I have not been able to find Mary Chisolm in the 1880 census, though by this time my grandfather had been born to the youngest daughter in New Orleans and is said to have been orphaned by the age of one. As you know, anyone with a child under ten in the household, should have been indexed. I have searched records in three states for these two without discovering where either one of them were in 1880.

I recently looked at the 1890 Mississippi census of Civil War Veterans or their Widows thinking to take a look at Captain Smith's service and/or pension records. That 1890 special census is supposed to include only veterans of Union forces, according to my understanding, but it is said that there are names of some who served the confederacy included. In this index there is a James Smith of Jackson County Scranton and a John Smith, whose identity I do not know, of Jackson County Scranton, both on the same page Dist. 4 E.D. 45. But on the actual film, John Smith is listed of Scranton and James Smith is listed as from Moss Point.

I have the book (the index) to the "Official Records of the Union and Confederate Navies in the War of the Rebellion" and there are a couple of James Smiths who had the rank of Captain. Or maybe my James Smith was Captain of the Scranton Volunteer Department. It has been my experience that many of the men in the South at that time seemed, with no regard for actual fact, I suspect, to have been called Captain This, Major That and General The Other--sort of like the Kentucky Colonel. We didn't have the information highway then and couldn't catch them up.

I had often thought of writing to the library in Pascagoula to see if there was any information there about this family of Captain James Smith and Eliza--just haven't got to it yet--and imagine my pleasant surprise when I wrote to you personally about Wayne County and my good Shepherds to find (from your stationery) that you apparently are affiliated with the Jackson-George Regional Library System, headquartered in Pascagoula's library.

Could you tell me if the library has any information on the James Smith family and/or the Chisolm family? Do you have obit cards? I have seen an obituary for Mary Chisolm, different than the one you so kindly reproduced and sent to me, and it says that Mary Chisolm's burial was at Greenwood Cemetery in Pascagoula. Has the cemetery been walked and recorded? I've seen some material which indicates there are other Chisolms buried there in that cemetery but I don't know who they are of if they're connected with my family.

I have done considerable research on this family in Mobile and New Orleans and if I could turn up another descendant, we might have information we could swap. I could join the local society there in Pascagoula and publish a few queries. Do you have information about their dues, etc. I mentioned to you before that I am a lifetime member of the Mobile Genealogical Society, having been born and raised there, as was my mother before me. I have had a few queries in the M.G.S. Quarterly.

I bought Mary Louise Adkinson's "Bouzage Bosarge Family Book" because Eliza Smith was the widow of Maximilien Bosarge and there seems to be a definite link between the Miller (her maiden name) family and the Bosarges or the Chisolm family and the Bosarges, or both, but I have never been able to figure out exactly where the connection is.

Eliza's father, Hans Christopher Miller, who I think died before 1850 could have been along the coast there. He apparently was a seafaring man and was from Denmark. I notice there were a number of men from Denmark in and around the Pascagoula area and along the Gulf Coast. I have struck out looking for what became of Christopher Miller, and what became of Jonathan Chisolm, who married the widow Mary Miller, thereby becoming Mrs. Smith's step-father in 1853 in Mobile.

There is another interesting thing. Mary Miller Chisolm's maiden name was Stallings and most censuses say she was born in South Carolina (while one said North Carolina). I have been able to see some Stallings in South Carolina records, but I've never been able to figure out exactly how a fellow from Denmark and a lady from South Carolina wound up together on the Gulf Coast.

I've noticed in the material I've seen thus far about Wayne County, Mississippi, that there was a John Stallings listed on the 1811 Wayne County Tax list and I've seen references to other Stallings in other counties around Wayne. Wouldn't that be delightful if in looking at my Shepherds in Wayne County I also came up with some clues about my Mary Stallings Miller Chisolm. I can dream, can't I?

There is definitely a strong Mississippi connection with the Chisolm/Miller/ Smith family. On my grandfather's birth record in New Orleans, his mother, who almost surely was born in Mobile, was said to be of Alabama and Mississippi.

I have believed that the Chisolm/Miller family had a domicile in addition to the one they occupied in Mobile. I believe Mary Miller had a son named Oscar Miller. Information in the book "Magnolia Cemetery" indicates there is a young man who lies buried in the Confederate Rest in Mobile whose name was Oscar Miller and whose grave marker indicates he served with Co. K, 7 Mississippi, and died 10 September 1864. A lot of Mississippi's young men are buried in that cemetery and some from the 7th Mississippi but the Mississippi Department of of Archives and History states that all companies comprising this regiment were from southern Mississippi border counties, in a check of their records, they could find no record for this man. They suggested the information on the tombstone may be in error. I can find Oscar Miller in the 1850 census in Mobile with widowed mother Mary, sister Eliza, and other children, but cannot find Oscar (nor the other children with the exception of Eliza) in the 1860 census.

The 7th Mississippi Regiment was originally the Franklin Guards, organized at Bunckley's Ferry, Franklin County, August 1861 and mustered into Confederate Service at Bay St. Louis, Mississippi. I see no sign of an Oscar Miller on their original list, no listing for Oscar Miller from Mississippi on the Consolidated Index of Confederate Soldiers.

If your library has any information on any of these matters for me, or if in your genealogical pursuits you have someone come to mind who might be researching the same family, I would appreciate learning about it. You people in that part of the country seem to be doing a great job in getting information down about the past before it is too late.

Eliza Smith is mentioned in the"Bouzage Bosarge Family Book" on page 111. It wasn't exactly as Georgiana Cassibry remembered it but she was close. However, that is not the way I got my first big help on this family. It was from an article by Napoleon Cassibry which appeared in the M.G.S. Quarterly in which he referred to Eliza Chisolm as having married Maximillien Bosarge. I had been checking the Quarterlies for any Chisolm surname appearing in the index, but was not necessarily doing the same for the surname Miller because Millers are just too numerous. My interest was piqued at the mention of a Chisolm and therefore I checked the marriage record of Maximillien Bosarge and when I saw that he married Eliza Miller, you can imagine my excitement, because I knew the widower Jonathan Chisolm had married the widow Mary Miller in 1853 in Mobile and that family often seemed to be interspersed with the Bosarges.

Thank Heaven for that apparent old custom of referring to the offspring of the previous marriage by the surname of the new head of the household. It started me off on a long research road and I will be eternally grateful to Mr. Cassibry, though I never wrote to him about it.

I hope you do not think I am imposing with such a long letter, but you ladies seem to be really into genealogy there and interested in documenting the history of Mississippi families while the opportunity still exists, and you could retain the information I've given for the benefit of anyone else who is researching my family in and around Pascagoula now or in the future. Anyone interested can feel free to contact me.

I had a very nice letter from Patricia Edwards with some good information and helpful suggestions re my Wayne County Sheppards research and I thank you for sharing with her on my behalf and I hope you will continue to do so on anything which be of interest to her. I intend to write to her immediately, if not sooner.

Do you have vertical files on families or surnames in your library? If so, if there isn't one for my Miller/Chisolm/Smith family, maybe one could be started and my name and address included in it.

If you have a chance to consider, as time permits, the things I have discussed with you in this letter, and if you would be inclined to respond when convenient, I would appreciate it very much. I will enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope for your convenience in case you decide to use it.

Very truly yours,

Elaine Webb

P. S. I got so carried away with Pascagoula matters, I am afraid I did not respond properly to your comments re Wayne County, MS. If I ever find any connection between my Sheppards and the ones in Green County MS and to Walker County, Texas and the Stricklands, I will be sure to let you know.

I appreciate your letting me know about the library in Waynesboro, MS and will follow up on your suggestion that I write to them.

Thanks for checking the Washington County, Alabama records and the newspapers and the Mobile Catholic records for a Lynch. I think that James Lynch in Wayne County in 1850 was a Justice of the Peace.

I appreciate your checking your book re the land records. I talked by phone Friday evening, August 5, to Mrs. Norma Anderson, of Norwalk, California, whose name was sent to me by Pat Edwards with the suggestion that I contact her. Mrs. Anderson has researched the Walker family which was in Wayne County and is included in your list of researchers in "Who Married Whom" in Wayne County. She found some information re the Sheppards in Wayne County in some of the books which she has and is going to send the information to me. Also she told me that the Huntington Beach, California, public library has almost all of your books. I've been there once on a field trip with a Genealogical Society and I will go again as soon as possible to look at your books.

Meanwhile, I had come to the conclusion that the location of my Sheppards in Wayne County was the town of Winchester, which Mrs. Anderson confirmed from the book about the land records.

I have read about a large contingent of Scots coming to Wayne County and have begun to wonder if my Sheppards could have been one of them. If that were the case, then their religion would most likely have been Presbyterian. The daughter of the family in Jefferson Parish, Louisiana, who was the first of the children belonging to the Sheppard family which I think came from Wayne County, to be married was married in a Presbyterian Church.

Do you know if there was a Presbyterian Church in Wayne County during the period 1819 - 1841 and if so, if it still exists and if there are any existing records?

Sincerely,

Elaine

MAXIMILLIAN BOSARGE

By

Edress Pearson Murray

The fourth child of Jean Baptiste Bouzage and Mary Clementine Ladner Bouzage was Maximillian. He was born on December 13, 1826 and was baptized on July 12, 1827. Sponsors: John Ladner and N. N. by Aug. De Angelis, Msy. Priest, according to record found on page 178-a of Bapt. Rcds, Book #1 of the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in the Archives of the Archdiocese of Mobile, Alabama.

On the 26th of March, 1855, Maximillian Bosarge obtained a license to intermarry and be joined together in the Bonds of Matrimony with Eliza Miller, and a bond was signed by Maximillian Bosarge and George W. Perrine on the same date.

Maximillian and Eliza were married on April 12, 1855 by J. J. Delchamps, J. P. (Mobile County, Alabama Marriage Records, Book 14, page 89.)

"Maximillian married Eliza Chism. He was my uncle. We called him Uncle Mien. He died with typhoid fever. He came to our house and lay down on the porch while he was sick. Aunt Eliza (we called her Aunt Liza) was my godmother. She called me George. After Uncle Mien died Aunt Liza married a Mr. Smith. Mr. Smith died and she married again and lived in Pascagoula. I stayed with them three weeks there." Georgiana Cassibry 6-20-1950

During the Civil War, Maximillian served the Confederacy in the Coast Guard and with the Alabama Volunteers commanded by Jacob M. Rabby.

Maximilliian is buried in Bayou la Batre, Alabama cemetery, near where Robert Wintzell's wife is buried. There is a row of seven graves there, including Uncle Valfrau and Uncle Theodore.

Maximillian had no descendants.

Dear Jean

Mrs. Edith Brown of the Mobile genealogy society gave me your name. I am working on Scottish/Missippi relatives. The family I am looking for is named Chislom. My father's names is Rufus Houston. I think his father was John but am not sure. (I am an adopted child and this is my natural father and I have no contact with him.) Also I am looking for the Havard's from Rocky Creek, Ms.My grandmothert was Katie Mae Havard. Her parents were Archibald and Rushie (she died in 1918 @) and there was a second marriage. Don't know her name.(@1922) and had 6 children by her. Both the Chisloms and the Havards are from Greene CO. in MS . My mother's family is Williford. Also from MS., but from Wayne county. My grandfather was James Everette. His Father was Henry (we think) but there is no evidence of him. He was supposed to be afull blooded Indian(Chickasaw we think) nobody ever wrote down anything so it is lost. His wife's name was Cinthia or Synthia. She is buried in a little cemetary in Bexley, MS. We know they were in Wayne county in 1900 because Cynthia and the children appeared in the census, but there is no mention of him. The oldest of their children was born in 1885 in Leaksville, Ms. But we have been unable to find birth, marriage, death, or land/tax records with him in them. If there is anything you can do to help it would be appreciated. If there is a charge please let me know and I will send it.

I am also working on my husband's family. The Polizzi's came from Sicily. His grandmother's family name was Lazzari and came fromDerMulo in the Province of Trentino in the Norther Italian Alps. (Austro-Hungary)Her parents were Vittorio Emanual Lazzari from Capriana, Italy . Her mother was Theresa A. Bertagnolli from Toa Dermula, Italy.

Any help you can give would be appreciated. Anything I can do, please let me know.

Dear Jean,

Thank you for sending the application for the membership in Jackson County Genealogical Society. I am enclosing the completed form and the dues.

I hadn't responded before to your last letter because I just have been hit with a veritable wall of time-consuming responsibilities (with deadlines), some new and unforeseen and some created by my own procrastination and neglect while spending my time on research (which is really what I enjoy doing). My research has had to be put on the back burner temporarily, but I will get back on track ASAP.

After I see the society's publication, I will submit a query. There is almost bound to be information in that area because of my family's long association with Pascagoula (Scranton). And if there's anyone who is researching my family, they might be as glad to find me as I would be to find them because I have been researching for some time.

I took your suggestion and am in contact with the Waynesboro group. Did you see their "Tracks 'N Trails" Volume 1, No. 1 and the query in there for me about my Shepherd family?

Hope your Thanksgiving is a nice one. I will give thanks for the kindness and helpfulness of good people like you.

Sincerely,

Dear Susan,

Your undated letter arrived on November 19. It is always nice to hear from Mobile. I have been gone from there for a very long time now, but I think my heart is still there. Edith is certainly well organized to keep track of which surnames and which places all of us are researching.

To answer your letter. First the bad news. I know nothing about Sicilian, Austro-Hungarian, or Italian research.

I would be pleased to accept for my records your offer to send the address of the Scottish society in Daphne. Although, with the similarity and interchangeability of the Irish, Scots, and English surnames, it's hard to figure out whos's who and which is which as far as nationalities are concerned.

The good news is that I am very much interested in that name CHISLOM. But you did not give any time frame in connection with that name and Greene County, Mississippi. I am researching Wayne County, Mississippi, right now for my SHEPHERD family who were there at least from 1819 to 1841. I have the feeling they might turn out to be Scottish, whereas before, I had always figured they were most likely Irish or English. Wayne County was formed in 1809 and GreeneCounty was formed in 1811 from Wayne County + Amite and Franklin Counties. (according to the "Handy Book").

Sincerely yours,

You may be sure that as I research I always keep my eye peeled for any CHISOLMS, no matter how it is spelled. I did not quite understand since you mentioned you were adopted if you are trying to trace your direct line and if your natural father Rufus Houston (son of John ? Houston) is connected to the Chislom family.

Enclosure

My Chisolm was in and around Mobile, at least from 1828 to 1860 and his widow left there in 1872. According to the 1850 census he was born in Alabama and from his age at the time that census was taken, he would have been born about 1805. Alabama did not become a state until 1819. Between 1798 and 1819 the area which later became the state of Alabama was part of the Mississippi Territory.

I do not know where my Chisolm came from nor who his parents were, nor actually when he first came to Mobile. I have a lot more research to do about that. There were CHISHOLMS in northern Alabama early on. And there was a kid named Rufus, I think. I have looked at a lot of Chisolms but without more information about the family of Chisloms you're looking for in Mississippi, I wouldn't have any way of knowing if any of them were yours.

I am particularly interested in your spelling of the name: CHISLOM. I have often wondered about that. I am convinced that my relative in Mobile signed his name CHISOLM. I will enclose, however, a copy of the record of the tombstone of his widow (wife[2]) (my ancestor) in the Greenwood Cemetery in Pascagoula, Mississippi. Plus another Chisolm whose identity I do not know. I have seen Chisolm written in such a way, it looks like Chislom. I have so frequently seen the name given as CHISLOM that I have wondered if when they said the name they may have pronounced it in such a way it sounded like CHISLOM. Particularly if it is a Scottish name (which I always figured it wa - but I am not certain at all about the origins of my Chisolm).

If you can tell me more about the name Chislom and/or your family of Chisloms I would be interested.

I have just joined the brand new Wayne County Genealogy Organization, Inc., which will put out a quarterly newsletter.

I have just also joined the Jackson County Genealogical Society in Pascagoula at the invitation of Mrs. Jean Strickland, who has authored and co-authored much of which has been published about Wayne County and Greene County as well.

I did these two things because I am researching my SHEPHERDS in Wayne County and my CHISOLMS in Pascagoula and the Gulf Coast area.

You might want to join one of those societies and put in a query. I don't know if they accept queries from non-members. They may.

A lot of people around Mobile are researching or have researched both these areas. If you put in a query in Mobile Genealogical Society, it might help.

If you do any of these things and get any Chisolm information, please let me know.

Sincerely yours,

Elaine Webb

CUSTOM-HOUSE REGULATION.

It has been communicated to us, by Mr. Smith, the Deputy Collector of this District, and we now give it publicity, that Mexican vessels arriving in the ports of the United States, will be required to pay the rate of tonnage formerly levied on them (but discontinued for a time) of $1 per ton, in addition to the usual Custom House charges. Such are the instructions from the Department at Washington.

Since our last report, we have had a few days of cool and pleasant weather, but the rain set in again yesterday. The city is unhealthy, and several deaths have taken place by the fevers of the climate, though malady is not so prevalent as to render it alarming, even to strangers. Business is yet dull, though the arrival of the Northern packet ships, with their cargoes, and the steamboats in the lower trade, with the Cotton of the new crop, give a more lively appearance to the Levee than has been noticed for some time past. The Mississippi continues at about 12 feet below high water mark.

Cotton.—Arrived since 1st October, inclusive, of Louisiana and Mississippi 2796 bales. Cleared in the same time, for Liverpool 820, Boston 364, Philadelphia 404, Baltimore 167; together 1785: making an addition to stock of 1011, and leaving on hand, inclusive of all on ship-board not cleared on the 4th instant, a stock of 8099 bales. The sales of the week amount to about 1000 bales, principally of the new crop, at from 10 a 11 cents per lb. which we quote as the regular prices of the article, though we have indirectly learned that a lot of 90 to 100 bales, under particular circumstances, obtained 11¼; we do not, however, adopt it as a criterion for quotation. The arrivals of the new crop are generally of the description termed prime; rarely a bale would merit the appelation choice, the best Cotton in market is sought for by purchasers for the Northern manufacturers, and that demand is now somewhat declining—some purchases of the new crop have also been made for Liverpool. Inferior Cotton has no demand.

Sugar is scarce, and transactions are fully up to our quotations, viz; on plantation 5 a 6, and in the city 5 a 6¼ cents per lb. The extensive Sugar Refineries now in operation here, and the large export of refined Sugar that will be made to the Northern cities in future, render it necessary that an account should be kept of it—we have, therefore, commenced doing so from the 1st inst. Cleared, for Baltimore 397 hhds. and 9 bbls. Philadelphia [illegible] hhds. 9 bbls. brown—and

Pas man's leadership, bravery in long-ago war in Spain recalled

By REGINA HINES
West Jackson County Bureau Chief

The memory of a fellow soldier who died in battle more than 50 years ago still haunts Edward I. Lending of Boca Raton, Fla.

Over the years, Lending often intended to write a letter to the family of the dead soldier he knew as Malcolm Chisholm to tell them of his comrade's leadership and bravery. He didn't know where they were.

But he remembered that Chisholm came from Pascagoula, Miss., and he recently wrote a letter, a eulogy for Chisholm, to The Mississippi Press. Lending said the people who knew Chisholm while he was growing up in Pascagoula may never have known that he died on foreign soil.

His thoughts are expressed in the following letter:

"In July of 1937, a noble son of Pascagoula lost his life on a Spanish battlefield. His death went unnoted. This is to redress, however belatedly, the oversight," his letter began.

"Malcolm Chisholm had enlisted in the American contingent of International Brigades — volunteers in the war to defend the young Spanish Republic against the Facist armies threatening it.

"I first became aware of Mac Chisholm on a Pyrenees mountain top. The sun had just risen, revealing a group of 30 bone-weary but exultant young men. They had struggled all the way from the French base of the Pyrenees up through the snow-covered slopes, across its crest, and onto Spanish soil. Mac stood out dramatically.

"He showed no sign of his recent ordeal. An erect carriage belied his relatively short stature. Intelligent blue eyes flashed out from strong features, crowned by a luxuriant crop of light hair. He exuded palpable lithness, wiriness, power," Lending wrote.

"Days later, in a training base southeast of Madrid, a new infantry company was fleshed out. Mac was one of its platoon commanders — and a natural. Uncannily perceptive — tough, when toughness was called for, understanding when compassion was indicated. He was deeply respected, and esteemed.

"This very private man and I grew close, baring ourselves in long, searching talks. I learned that in the depression years of the ealy 30s, Mac was a seaman. The merchant marine, then, was a spawning ground for dreamers, idealists, homepsun philosophers and radicals of every stripe. There, Mac's thirst for purpose was slaked. Later, in his two pre-war years, he worked as an artist on a WPA (Works Progress Administration) project. What we saw of his artwork was all crisp, clean, sharp. He had a writing style which matched it.

"Mac was our Renaissance man. He seemed to have a resevoir of talents, equal to almost every situation confronting him. All but one, as it turned out — survival.

"Ominously, on the second day of our first action, Mac saw many of his treasured comrades expire, in a man-made thunderclap. A few days thereafter, in an assault on an enemy position (over a bloodied battlefield recalled in battalion annals as Mosquito Hill) Mac was wounded. He managed to crawl into the shelter of a shallow foxhole ... peered out to check on the disposition of his men ... and a bullet pierced his skull.

"Pascagoula should be proud of the man little Mac Chisholm had become. He was an honorable and utterly dedicated life. He had willingly risked that life in the fight against Fascist evil, long before most of the world recognized its menace. One hopes hard that Pascagoula might be moved to create some fitting memorial — like Mac himself, a modest one — in memory of its gallant son.

"Malcolm Chisholm was infinitely my precious comrade. I should be delighted with the opportunity to offer a contribution for the purpose while one still can ..."

Census and courthouse records show that Mac Chisholm and his family lived in Pascagoula in the early part of the 1900s. Chisholm's parents, Alonzo J. Chisholm and Ella Burgess, were married at Christ Lutheran Church on Nov. 30, 1895. By 1910 the family was living on Cemetery Lane near Buena Vista Street. Alonzo Chisholm may have had a job that took him away from his family, because only Ella and the children are shown in the household and she is listed as being married.

In 1910 there were five Chisholm children, Walter,11; John, 9; Malcolm, 7; Earnest,5 and a Wren, a two-year-old girl.

Hubert Grant and Cecil White are among the few people who remember Mac Chisholm, who would have been about 85 today. "I can still remember what he looked like," White said. He thinks Chisholm and his family may have left Pascagoula in the early 1920s. Where they went no one is certain. White also remembers that someone had told him that Chisholm had gone to sea.

Longtime members of Christ Lutheran Church vaguely remember the Chisholms and their children. But no one seems to know what happened to the family.

Lending recalls that Mac Chisholm was "A taciturn man. I always suspected that he had very little to do with his family at that point. There were so many people that just disappeared form sight in those days," he said.

"I've never really stopped thinking about him," Lending said. He said after all this time he wanted to do something in memory of his friend.

He hopes the people of Pascagoula will also make some gesture to remember one of its native sons.

dominated her for the office.

In 1911 Mrs. Talley was elected national secretary of the Woodmen Circle and moved to Omaha, where the headquarters of the society is located. She continued in this office until three years ago, when the office of national president became vacant on account of the death of the then national president, the late Mrs. Mary E. LaRocca, at which time she was unanimously chosen president.

In her three years at the head of the Society, Mrs. Talley has gained national recognition for her fraternal activities and for the growth of the assets and membership of the Woodmen Circle. She was the dominant motivating factor in the establishment of the Woodmen Circle Home for Aged Members and Orphan Children in Sherman, Texas, and is at the head of the Society's field work and finance committees.

For twenty-five years she has been an active member of the National Fraternal Congress of America, having served in various offices in the secretaires section, including that of president. She has aso served on various standing committees of the Congress. In 1935 she became president of the presidents section and also a member of the Executive Committee of the Congress. In 1936 she was elected vice-president of the Congress and she now becomes president.

Following the close of the Congress, Mrs. Talley will preside over an executive committee meeting of the Congress, after which she will return to the headquarters of the Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle to complete plans for the Society's first National Institute, which is to be held in Omaha September 27 to 30, at which meeting nearly two thousand women are expected. It will feature a pageant in which one hundred drill teams, representing every state, will participate.

The above will be read with interest by the members of the local Woodmen Circle, Morgan Grove No. 20, which has a membership of forty-five. The following are the officers of the Morgan Grove Circle of Pascagoula: Guardian, Mrs. Zuranis Brondum; past guardian, Mrs. Florence Trehern; advisor, Mrs. Myrtle Green; chaplain, Mrs. Hilda Buffett; banker, Mrs. Helena Moncrief; financial secretary, Mrs. Alice Beckham; attendant, Mrs. Sadie Rox; assistant attendant, Mrs. Leona Pender; auditors, Mrs. Esther Fox, Mrs. Hilda Kelly and Mr. John O. Brondum.

The Grove holds regular monthly meetings and attends the district meetings quarterly. xxxx.

The meetings lasted until Sunday night, and no doubt were productive of much good among negro citizens, who should receive encouragement in their efforts in this direction.

Malcolm Chisolm Killed In Spain

Meridian, Miss., Sept. 7.—Malcolm M. Chisholm of Mobile, son of Mrs. Ella Chisholm and brother of Mrs. J. P. Poitevent of Meridian, has been killed in the Spanish war.

Monday a communication was received from the national office of the Abraham Lincoln Battalion, which stated:

"Malcolm M. Chisholm was killed in action while heroically fighting with the Abraham Lincoln Battalion on the Brunete front during the week of July 5-10 against the Fascist invasion of Spain."

Comment of his heroism was made in the letter, written to the mother of the hero.

Relatives here state that Mr. Chisholm had been in Spain with the battalion since April.

The deceased for many years was connected with the Chattanooga, Tenn., News as a writer and artist. He was also quite active in Boy Scout and Red Cross work.

The above dispatch was printed in the Times-Picayune of Wednesday, and refers to Malcolm Chisholm, who spent his boyhood days in Pascagoula and will be remembered by many of his young friends here. He attended the Pascagoula High school and was a leader in Boy Scout activities, and was also an artist of some talent, even when a boy here.

Malcolm's boyhood friends here will regret to learn of his death and will sympathize with his mother in her bereavement.

Shortly after General Motors Corporation had announced a price jump of from $30 to $100 per car on the ground that "wildcat" strikes had raised production costs, a government report revealed that Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., G. M. board chairman, had received a $411,161 bonus in 1936, in addition to his $151,150 regular salary.
